Sanatorium Patients Given Outing

The Crows' Nest Pass Automobile Association took the patients and staff of the Frank Military Hospital out for a spin on Wednesday afternoon and a very enjoyable and beneficial outing was spent on the shores of Crows' Nest Lake.

The ladies of the Bellevue Branch of the Red Cross Society were in attendance and served refreshments. Boats and cars were placed at the disposal of the guests at the Lake, and everything was done to make the outing pleasant.

This is the second of the 1918 series of outings in behalf of the patients of the Frank hospital, which is becoming more and more popular. Every autoist in The Pass are manifesting a keen interest, and contemplate doing their share towards ensuring the patients such an outing every two weeks for the summer months.

Two Youths Cause Mine Explosion

An accident of somewhat mysterious origin occurred in one of the old workings of the Frank mine on Tuesday evening, in which Frank Horejsi and Frank Chisek, two Bohemian boys of about nineteen years, came near losing their lives. This particular pocket of the mine had not been operated for some time past, and may have been charged with gas. What business the boys had in the mine cannot be learnt, but it appears that they were either taking in the sights or looking for coal, when an explosion occurred which blew them both to the surface. One story is that the explosion was caused from a defective lamp, but some miners are of opinion that a spark may have been caused by some other means. Parties happening to be in close proximity to the mine were aroused by the concussion and looking up witnessed a dense cloud of black smoke issuing from the mine mouth and also two objects dashing towards woods near by. Investigation disclosed the two boys, almost stripped of the clothing, the flesh hanging in shreds and bleeding freely. Helping hands moved them to the town below, where first aid was administered until the doctors arrived a few minutes later. The boys were removed to Blairmore hospital.

From latest reports the boys will recover. Both have been considerably burned about the head and body, and how they were not blinded or crippled is a mystery. Their clothes were torn to shreds and what remained were in flames when they landed on the surface, where they fell in the dust to extinguish the flames.

Since the accident, a party in charge of Mine Inspector Stevenson, have examined the mine and the entrance has been closed. Clouds of smoke issuing from the mine mouth at intervals since the accident would indicate that fire existed in the mine, but the inspectors report a wall of gas existing immediately inside of where the boys had located.

At the time of the explosion, the boys were about sixty feet from the mouth of the pit, and this means, say, whether they were blown part way or all the way to the surface.

Summary of Week's War News

War reports of the past week are very optimistic. On all fronts the Allies have been penetrating the enemy lines, and the more recent German drive was completely frustrated with heavy losses to the enemy.

Yesterday's reports show that the French have gained from two to four miles everywhere on the twenty-five-mile front of their offensive between the Aisne and the Marne, and have captured several thousand prisoners and a large number of guns, and all along the line of attack the situation is excellent. The attack is said to be the biggest move made this year by the Allies.

American troops, which a few days ago drove the Germans back over the Marne, went clear "over the top" with a cheer yesterday in the launching of the allied surprise attack on the front northwest of Chateau-Thierry.

The French have now reached a point facing the most important German railway centers, which feeds the entire front west of Rheims. The French artillery is now within easy shelling distance of these railways and should be able to make life miserable for a large section of the German army. Military men attach great importance to the Lateral railway lines around Soissons, and say that if General Foch can get his artillery into position to keep these lines out of action he will make the whole movement of the German supplies in the whole sector between Rheims and Chateau-Thierry impossible. On the extreme east of the recent German offensive the French have recaptured their old lines for a distance of three or four miles.

By a surprise attack early Wednesday night, the Australian lines east of Amiens advanced more than a third of a mile. The German trenches captured are southeast of Villiers-Bretonneux.

American storm troops in large numbers, have launched, in co-operation with the French, a powerful offensive on the line to the north of Chateau-Thierry and have passed beyond nearly all their objectives, including the Paris-Soissons road. The town of Soissons is now well within the range of American guns.

North of the Marne, the French have regained the whole of the Rois Wood and the village of Ventenil.

An Italian Waltonian was approached by a game warden the other day and asked to produce his fishing license. He produced a birth certificate, which he thought was the key to the universe.

In Granbrook the Baptists have cut the time of holding services to 45 minutes. This is 40 minutes too long, when the hot weather makes it uncomfortable to sleep in church.

The loaders and merely nominal workers of the North American Continent have fallen upon evil days. Both in Canada and the United States, the law has not set its face severely against them. On July 1st the United States Federal Order, as drawn up by Provost Marshall Enoch Crowder, went into effect. All men of draft age, that is between the ages of eighteen and fifty have now to be engaged in some productive employment or get into the army. This Federal Order is being reinforced by anti-loading laws enacted by the State Legislature.

The Provost Marshall has defined productive and non-productive occupations and there is no escape for those who cannot be classed among the productive workers if they are of draft age. Non-productive occupations in the United States are defined as follows:—

First, persons engaged in the serving of food and drink or either in public places, including hotels and social clubs.

Second, passenger elevator operators, attendants, door and footman, carriage openers and other attendants in clubs, hotels, stores, opera houses, office buildings and bath-houses.

Third, persons, including waiters and other attendants engaged and occupied in connection with games, sports and amusements, except actual performers in legitimate concerts, operas and theatrical performances.

Fourth, persons employed in domestic service.

Fifth, Sales clerks and other clerks employed in stores and other mercantile establishments.

If a man of draft age registered in due course and waiting his selection for the draft he not only is productive or completely, he must hold himself on immediate call for the army. The regulation is applicable to idle registrants, to gamblers of all descriptions and employees of race tracks and bucket shops, to fortune-tellers, clairvoyants, palmists and persons of such vocation. If the Board of Appeal judges them to be idle, their names will be reported to the Adjutant General of the State for military service. The only excuse for idleness and non-productive employment on the part of a man of military age are set down as sickness, reasonable vacation, lack of reasonable opportunity for employment, temporary absences from regular employment, not to exceed one week, unless such are based on frequent or domestic circumstances involving hardship to dependents if change of employment were ordered, or where such change would necessitate night work on the part of women under unsuitable conditions.

In the State of New York, the sheriff, state police, district attorneys, magistrates, other officers of the law, and the State Industrial Commission, under the State Anti-loading legislation, are combined to enforce the Federal Order and assign men where necessary to jobs of a productive character. It is estimated that 1,000,000 will change their employment as the result of this order of General Enoch Crowder. It is pointed out, however, that no man should give up his present employment, even though of the non-productive class, until he has either procured work at an essential industry or such work has been procured for him, as it is recognized that a man employed at non-essential work is better than a man not employed at all.

Canada's Anti-loading Law has been in operation since early in April and every male person over sixteen and under twenty years of age, unless a bona fide student, or physically unfit, or reasonably unable to find employment, must be engaged in some useful occupation.

In Canada the most essential industry at the present time is agriculture. Food production is a necessity of the summer of 1918 and the saving of the harvest is the necessity of the present moment. More than 55,000 men are bodied now, in addition to the men already employed on the land, such as the Soldiers of the Soil and the boys and women of other organizations, will be needed to save the crops this season. There is no room for loafers; no time for idlers and there should be no mercy for tramps and mere pool-room sports.

Twenty Sheep For Every Soldier

Twenty sheep are required to provide sufficient wool to keep one soldier clothed. In Canada there are less than 5½ sheep per soldier. Wool is at a record price, as is also mutton. The Canada Food Board urges producers to increase production of sheep and municipal co-operation in controlling the menace from dogs.

Balmer's Singing Kaffirs

Come to Chautauqua

Twenty-five years ago J. H. Balmer went into Africa as a member of the Colonial engineers from London. He had studied in the Royal Academy of Music and he became interested in teaching little boys of the Kaffir tribe how to sing. He organized what he called his singing band. With these boys he gave concerts through the white centers of Africa. Later he appeared before the different governors of the provinces. Right Hon. Cecil Rhodes heard them. They were sent to London and appeared before Queen Victoria. A reception was given in their honor on the steps of the House of Parliament. They sang before 60,000 people in London. Through the influence of Bishop John H. Vincent, they came to this country and sang at Chautauqua Lake, dividing honors with President Roosevelt on the same program.

With younger boys, who have replaced the older ones, the company today is the most unique and remarkable on the Chautauqua platform. Just prior to the opening of the present Chautauqua season, the entire company arrived in America after a 14,000 mile trip to Africa and return. They appear in native costumes and their program is a song and story demonstration of life in Africa. They appear on the evening only of the last day at Chautauqua and constitute one of the biggest attractions of the week.

The Dominion Food Board has issued orders making the use of substitutes for wheat flour compulsory.

The order requires as substitute for wheat flour, "pure and wholesome corn, oats, barley, rice, rye, buckwheat, tapioca, or potato flour, lentils, sorgho, oatmeal, rolled oats, corn meal, cornstarch, hominy, corn grits, rye meal, rice, tapioca, or any mixture of same and potatoes."

Four pounds of potatoes will be considered equivalent to 1 pound of other substitutes.

The order provides that on and after July 1st, bakers, confectioners and public eating places in making any bakery product in which the use of substitutes is prescribed definite proportions is not prescribed by previous orders of the Food Board, must use one pound of substitutes for every nine pounds of standard wheat flour. Similarly, persons baking for private consumption any product in which white or standard flour is used, must use not less than one pound of substitutes to every nine pounds of white or standard wheat flour.

On and after July 15, this proportion, so far as places of public eating are concerned, must be increased to one pound of substitutes to every four pounds of white or standard wheat flour. On and after July 15 every baker must place on each loaf of bread a label or sticker bearing his name and address and the words "victory bread."

The order makes it an offence for any person to sell or have in his possession any bread, rolls, pastry or any other product in which white or standard flour is used, which does not conform to the requirements of the Food Board. The penalty for violation of the new regulations is a fine of not less than $100 and up to $1000, or imprisonment for a term of three months, or both fine and imprisonment.

Penalties For Breaking Food Laws

"Any person violating any provision of any order or regulation of the Canada Food Board, or any provision of the enforcement of the power invested upon it, is guilty of an offence, and shall be liable upon summary conviction before a Police Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace to a penalty not exceeding $1,000, and not less than $100; or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or to both fine and imprisonment." By Order-in-Council P.C. (1542) of June 22nd, 1918. The enforcement of the order and regulations of the Canada Food Board depends principally upon the patriotic co-operation of the municipal police authorities.

Flight Across The Atlantic

Come to Chautauqua

For a dozen or more years now we have been dreaming of great flights through the air. And periodically there have been rumors of attempts soon to be made to fly across the Atlantic. Well, now's the time to do this in a dispatch will be readily recalled. But the trial by the airplane or seaplane has yet to be made.

But the trial is to come, and come before long. The occasion for it is the necessity of getting large planes from this country across the water as rapidly and safely as possible. If this can be done without taking up cargo space in vessels, there will more than ever be independent speed in our building operations that the fall or certainly the spring may see such a flight of planes that Germany will be in a fair way to be overwhelmed by them.

The starting point of such a flight would inevitably be at first be Newfoundland. The landing place might be the Azores of Ireland. In either case an initial flight of from 1200 to 1500 miles is called for. Inasmuch as a flight of more than 900 miles has been made within a year, this feat would not seem to be an unbelievable thing.

The authorities for the statement that such flight are to be attempted in the early fall are the British and American Governments. We may, therefore, take the rumor seriously, and trust that the event will more than fulfill all the expectations.

A few years ago it was counted a great feat to fly across the English Channel. Now all airplanes going from England to France or back go in that way. The exigencies of war bring to pass things that otherwise do not happen. It may be that the secret of successful trans-Atlantic flight has now been discovered. If so, we may expect by next summer such a climax to the war in the air as the German front as the Allies have long been waiting for. For then, we shall have the machines and the men and it will only be a case of getting them across. All in all, we may be on the verge of seeing great things in the next three months.—Glooseater Daily Times.

Editors never strike for higher wages or shorter hours. While the war profits and the wage grabbers, are plotting how to squeeze some money out of the week general public, they just eat their mush and free publicity do in silence, put another patch on their pants and keep on shoving the pen for the benefit of the log-like world. They never jostle others in the mud ruck at the trough of materialism. They know that all the wild drive for pelf, caniffage and the mere dollars called money is but mere torture for the soul. For what shall it profit a man if he gains the entire day's wage, and cannot get a square feed of bacon on Friday, or drive into the sugar-bowl ad libitum.—Greenwood Ledger.

Frank Bids Miss Crough Farewell

The following has been handed us by Mrs. McFar for publication:
A pleasant event took place at Frank recently, when a number of citizens gathered to do honor to Miss Crough and to show their appreciation of her efficient services during the past three years. A sumptuous meal was served in picnic style to about sixty people. When all were seated, Mr. Tompkins, on behalf of those present, made a farewell address to Miss Crough. He said that in losing Miss Crough, Frank was losing not only a conscientious teacher, but also a very popular and active worker in patriotic and social circles.

A presentation address was then made by Mrs. McFar and Miss Lilly. Lilly presented Miss Crough with an amethyst necklace, pendant and pin. Miss Crough made a brief reply of thanks and expressed her sorrow in leaving Frank and her many friends.

The following families assisted in making the event a success: Patton, A. Young, T. Moore, D. Moore, H. Moore, Morgan, Murray, Brown, Anderson, Blais, Carpenter, Jolly, Naylor, Baird, Dawson, Knott and McFar; also Messrs. Crooks, Glendahl, and Privates Hall and McClure.

Are you living or are you simply existing? If living, you have some purpose before you for which to live. There is an aim in your mind, a desire in your heart for something beyond you today. To be just drifting and taking care of the day brings without a thought for tomorrow, a thought for something better, is to be merely existing. You are no better than a plant, a withered apple or a dried-up potato, scarcely of as much use, for the apple or potato may still feed a pig. If you live, you are putting forth the best that is in you daily. Right use of the mind enlarges its powers. Year by year should find you advanced from when you were the year before. If no effort is made to advance in mind and character, you are falling behind. You are not unlike a stagnant pool that becomes filled with undesirable life. When you are seeking good, it is easy for evil to creep in. Decide each day to live, not merely to exist.—Ex.

Glenn Well's Entertainers Coming

Fifth Day of Chautauqua Will Be Featured by Two Programs of Joyous Entertainment

Two programs filled to the brim with joyous entertainment will be presented on the fifth day with the coming of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Well. These young artists have won a prominent place among Chautauqua entertainers the country over. Both are splendid musicians and are capable of presenting a musical program alone that would suit the most exacting critic. In addition to this talent, however, they possess real histrionic ability, and the dramatic sketches which they give are among the most artistic productions of the platform.

The two programs of the fifth day include baritone and soprano solos, vocal duets, story-telling and readings, pianologues, musical and dramatic sketches.

Herbsman in Patriotic Lecture

"Carry On" Deals With Individual and Community Obligation

J. C. Herbsman brings to Chautauqua a stirring patriotic lecture. Mr. Herbsman is one of our best-known Lyceum and Chautauqua lecturers. He has spoken before more business men's organizations and Chambers of Commerce than any man in the West. He has been described very aptly as "two hundred pounds of dynamite," a man of restless enthusiasm and unbounded energy. In his lecture, "Carry On," Mr. Herbsman speaks with tremendous earnestness and conviction, dealing frankly, fearlessly and faithfully with the duty of the individual and the community to the country in this national crisis.

Noted Italian Violinist Coming

Vincenzo Gullotta Heads Company on Second Day at Chautauqua

The Gullotta Trio ranks very near the top of all Chautauqua musical companies, both in its musical excellence and its ability to meet the demands of Chautauqua audiences.

Vincenzo Gullotta, well-known Italian concert violinist, heads the company. He is distinguished alike for the firm delicacy of his touch and the brilliance and velocity of his technique. Ruth Gullotta, the charming wife of Vincenzo Gullotta, is not only a woman of charming personality, but also a pianist and accompanist who possesses a rare ability to understand every change of interpretative mood. Martha Cook, soprano soloist, has a voice of unusual range and flexibility.

SERGEANT GEORGE HUTTON, M.M.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutton, of Bellevue, have been officially informed from Ottawa that their son, Sergeant George Hutton, M.M., was killed in action on November 6th, 1917, at Passchendaele Ridge. He joined the 54th battalion at Vernon and was in England transferred to the 2nd battalion, 1st Canadian division.

United States and Japan Will Act

Tokio, July 18.—Japanese newspapers today publish the terms of an American proposal to send American troops to Siberia. The newspapers declare that the Japanese government had decided to accept the suggestion made by the American government that Japan also send troops.

London, July 18.—The Japanese have reached a decision which was the outcome of proposals from the United States, says a dispatch from Tokio to the Times under date of July 13, for joint American-Japanese intervention in Siberia. The American proposals, the dispatch adds, were different from those made by Great Britain and France.

Court Upholds The Government

Ottawa, July 19.—The supreme court at two o'clock this afternoon dismissed the application of the habeas corpus made on behalf of Private Grey. The judgment establishes the validity of the order in council of April 20, cancelling certain exemptions granted under the Military Service Act, and is contrary to the finding of the supreme court of Alberta. Justices Idington and Brodeur dissented from the judgment.

It will not now be necessary to summon parliament in special session to deal with the matter.

Calgary, July 19.—The Dominion government will appeal the Alberta appellate court's ruling in the case of Norman Earl Lewis, who claims the order-in-council calling exempted men to the colors is ultra vires. Notice to this effect was served on Lewis' counsel, A. McLeod Sinclair, today by James Muir, K.C., representing the government.

Capt. Hutchison Gets The Military Cross

In the list of Canadian Cavalry Officers gazetted with the Military Cross appears the name of Capt.

Roger Hutchison, well known in Pincher Creek district.

The report gives the following particulars: "Capt. Roger Hutchison, in command of the first wave of attack, pushed his way forward, enabling the capture of many prisoners and saving considerable casualties."

Capt. Hutchison was well known all over Southern Alberta, having travelled for a number of years for the International Harvester Company out of Lethbridge. He was familiarly known as "Hutch." His many friends will be delighted to hear that he has this great honor bestowed upon him. He enlisted with the 13th O.M.R. as a lieutenant and has been promoted to the rank of captain—since going to France.

Tickets are now on sale for the Chautauque, by members of the general committee, and are going fast. We believe that this year's Chautauque is going to be a big success and that the total capacity of 1400 will be more than taxed; therefore it would be advisable for intending patrons to secure their tickets early and thus ensure admission. We might point out the advantage in making advance bookings. Season tickets purchased before opening day are $2.50 for adults, $1.50 for students, and $1.00 for children. After opening day they will be advanced about 20%. The season ticket means that the adult is paying about 18 cents for each programme, and the child about 7 cents, which is far less than the charge made for any other means of entertainment.
